

I am against media consolidation. Please do not relax the rules. Most people get their news from television, newspapers and the radio and there are fewer and fewer owners of these outlets. It is against the public interest to consolidate media ownership.